FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Birmingham, Alabama, August 17, 2016 – We are pleased to announce that two children of CAM South employees received an annual scholarship from The World Sweeping Association.

Patrick “Aaron” Trull

Aaron will be enrolling in the University of Alabama to pursue a career in the field of nursing. He maintained a 3.9 GPA in high school, where he was also very active in extracurricular affairs. He is the son of Pat & Misty Smith.

He was in the National Beta Club, National Honor Society and participated in football, track and wrestling. He has also taken an active role in his church youth group and in his community’s community outreach program. In addition, he has maintained a job as a ‘sandwich artist’ at Subway.

Denise Gardiner, who has known Aaron since kindergarten, says of him: “Aaron has always been a kind, intelligent, hardworking young man. He has never been in any trouble and graduated with a very high grade point average.”

Christopher Huff

Chris will be pursuing a career in the field of nursing. He was an active member of his community church youth group, where he served by volunteering as a VBS leader as well as working on things like cutting grass, painting, cleaning and more. Chris is the son of Mike & Christie Huff.

The coach of his high school baseball team gave Chris the following character reference: “Chris Huff is one of my favorite players I have ever had the opportunity to coach. This is not only due to his many talents, but more so because of his desire for excellence on a daily basis. He is without a doubt a great athlete in our program, but he is more importantly an outstanding young man.”

Chris also received awards for being an Outstanding Peer Helper in his high school, volunteering at Special Olympics’ track meets and the Special Education Prom.
